Dear Sir/Madam

11th December 2015

Operative Certificates

Further to the recent successful completion of assessments for your employees, please find enclosed certificates in respect of:

- Colin Bone

The certificates must be signed immediately by the operative. The expiry date is shown against each assessment. The conditions of certification are shown on the reverse.

Covering letters for each operative are also enclosed. The assessment centre has been advised that the certificates have been dispatched.

If the assessments were for either ACS Gas or OFTEC Oil, the results have been transferred to the appropriate authority and you should contact them directly regarding registration and for information regarding ID cards.

If you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely

Dear Operative

Nationally Accredited Certification Scheme for Individual Gas Fitting Operatives

Please find enclosed your certificate of competence following satisfactory completion of the assessment you undertook recently. Please accept my congratulations on behalf of UK Certification Ltd for your achievement.

You should sign your certificate immediately, in order for it to be valid. The conditions of certification are shown on the reverse. Please read these carefully and ensure that you comply with them. The certificate expiry date is shown against the assessed element. It is your responsibility to ensure that your certification is renewed, if you intend to continue undertaking the work that it covers. You should keep your certificate with you when undertaking gas work.

I would also remind you that in order to carry out gas work in the UK, you must be registered with Gas Safe either as a sole trader or through a business that is Gas Safe registered. You may only carry out gas work where you hold a valid certificate for that category of work.

Gas Safe Registration and ID Card

Details of your successful assessment have been transmitted to Gas Safe. Please contact Gas Safe directly on 0800 408 5577 for further information on registration and the issue of ID cards.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or would like information regarding alternative assessment opportunities.

Yours faithfully

We are currently unable to print cards to accompany the certificates and will forward these as soon as possible. Please accept our apologies for this technical difficulty.
